

Management Committee

Peter Albano is a Senior Managing Director and the Global Head of Fixed Income at Oppenheimer & Co. Inc. Peter has expanded the Firm's Taxable Fixed Income franchise to better serve Oppenheimer's institutional clients with expanded fixed income expertise, geographic reach, and intellectual capital. Under Peter's leadership, Oppenheimer continues to focus on delivering customer-driven solutions to a diverse client base who require expertise in all fixed income capabilities, including Global Credit, Rates, and Structured Products. Peter joined Oppenheimer in 2013. Previously, he was responsible for heading the U.S. institutional client relationship management teams for BNP Paribas and Royal Bank of Scotland. Prior to that, he worked at Bear Stearns where he held strategic management roles within fixed income sales and trading. Peter earned his BA from St. John's University.
